

History

Preparing for Post 16

Take a look at the AQA History A Level specification website. You need to scroll down the page and read through the information under 1D Stuart Britain, and 2O Democracy & Nazism.

Link

Read chapter 3 of the Very Short Introduction to Stuart Britain and the History Today article (and other resources as you wish to use). Create a set of notes detailing the positive and negative aspects of James I qualities as a monarch.

Link

Read the resources then make notes under to plan an answer to the question 'To what extent was there an actual revolution in Germany in 1918-1919?'

Link

- suggested as good preparation for the course.
- suggested to support the essential activities for the course
- suggested to support wider learning around the subject; you are expected to do this independently at Post 16.

(The images are links)

The Stuarts

Crown and Political Nation

Ten Minute History - The Weimar Republic and Nazi Germany

Germany's First Republic

If you are a history student at A-level or undergraduate level and have a love of the subject, or want support with your studies, we can help.

With Student membership you'll receive access to a wealth of online resources